

50 IOWA BANKERS ASSOCIATION YEAR BANKER

NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

If you have an employee(s) at your bank, who has worked in the banking industry for fifty years. The Iowa Bankers Association would like to recognize and honor these individuals for their committed service by inducting them into the Iowa Bankers Association's 50 YEAR BANKER Program. Please read the following steps to induct your banker.

1. Fill out the NOMINATION FORM and return by July 1, 2019.
2. Upon receipt of nomination form, inductee will receive a congratulatory letter from the Iowa Bankers Association and a BIO form to fill out and return. This information will help prepare their introduction at the luncheon.
3. Upon receipt of the BIO form, each inductee will receive an invitation to the luncheon. Guests (family/co-workers) may also be invited. There are no fees to attend.

The luncheon will be Tuesday, September 24, 2019 at noon preceding the annual convention. John Sorensen, President and CEO of Iowa Bankers Association will welcome participants with a look back to fifty years ago.

After John's presentation, Kurt Herbrechtsmeyer, past chair of the executive committee, will introduce each honoree, and asked them to come up to the podium, where John will congratulate them with a plaque and lapel pin.

The IBA Marketing department will provide a photographer, family may take pictures anytime.

We appreciate your assistance in helping us honor those who have served their communities, and our industry so well. While many CEOs would like this honor to be a surprise it is not suggested, due to the BIO information request, travel and presentation.
